

PEN 2019 Educating for Democracy:
Navigating the Current and Channeling the Future of Progressive Education

Here's a sample of the 100+ programs & workshops coming to PEN 2019!

FRIDAY OCTOBER 4TH

Navigating the Current: Honoring Elders Through Storytelling

-Heather Korpala & Karen Duranceau, Green Bay Area Public Schools

Channeling the Future: Developing Social Justice Advocacy

-Dr. Artika Tyner, University of St. Thomas, Minnesota

Fostering Language Acquisition Through Playful Inquiry Based Learning

-Lian (Kate) Foreman & Xuejing Lv, Presidio Knolls School, San Francisco

Fold, Crumple, Crush: El Anatsui's Artistry as Progressive Practice

-Kendra Sibley, Bronx Community Charter School

Taking Student Learning On the Road

-Leigh Ann Erickson, Mt. Vernon H.S., Iowa & Mia Henry, Freedom Lifted

The Revolution Will Not Be Standardized

-Mikki Sanders & Michelle Holmes, University of Chicago Lab School

Lessons from Forest Schools: Teaching and Learning Outside

-Scott Morrison & Anna Morrison, Elon University, North Carolina

Cultivating and Nurturing Collaborative Civic Space and Inquiry

-Amber Strong Makaiau, PhD, Chad Miller, PhD, Hanahauoli School, Hawai'i

SATURDAY OCTOBER 5th

Channeling the Future: Human Circuitry

-Justin Greer & Kristie Guiliano, The Dalton School, NYC

Using Improv to Create Braver Classrooms

-Kirk LaRue & Dana O'Brien, Francis W. Parker School, Chicago

Navigating the Current: A Rights-Based Lens for Education

-Kelly Peters & Gabby Cárdenas, UCLA Lab School, Los Angeles

Maker Communities: How 5th-7th Grade Students Use Digital Resources

-Ian Klapper, Dan Levy, and Zeldia Gay, City and Country School, New York

Stories Told Through Monuments and Memorials

-Bob Robinson, Lauren Hiner & Lucia Marcus, The Duke School, NC

Applying Principles of Democracy in Disciplinary Action

-Daphne C. Braun, J.D., Christy Deskins, M.A., The Sussex School, Montana

Sailing the Ship of State: Civics Education in a Progressive School

-Ann Carroll, LREI, New York

